62 Chooks Ridge St, Shannonvale

Self Sufficent Serenity...REDUCED TO SELL IMMEDIATELY

This eco-friendly 24 acre property is nestled in the hidden Shannonvale Valley, ideally positioned five minutes from Mossman and just 15 minutes to Port Douglas, with views into the valley that are to die for.

The owners are motivated sell and have reduced the price by $100,000 to get moving onto new horizons as quickly as they can.

Powered by an easily managed 24 Volt solar power system, there is no power bill to be paid and a 8Kva backup generator is also in place. Fresh water is provided by six enormous poly tanks - 81,000L - that will capture the abundant rainfall during the Wet Season. However if you choose to go 'mainstream' a connection to the grid is easily done.....

There is also a working aquaponics shade-house enabling you to produce your own organic fresh vegetables....carbon neutral and productive to boot!

A large open-plan living and dining area - complete with cathedral ceilings - greets you upon entry, and flows into the kitchen which features gas stove and gas hot water. Adjacent to this area are the two expansive bedrooms.
