Skase's Place no more...with new owners of the resort - big refreshing changes are underway. Renovation works have commenced on the main resort hotel rooms and facilities. The Golf course has undergone major improvements and there is an air of excitement around...Port Douglas will once again have a world class resort destination.

The villas values will grow and increase with all the improvement works being carried out. A resort of this scale covering 200+ acres of beachfront land simply cannot be replicated today. This is a certainty.
