From here you are drawn out to the alfresco covered patio and a huge timber deck, a great space for entertaining, enjoying meals or taking in a few of those North Queensland sundrenched days.

Moving back inside the bedroom wing with its luxurious carpeted floors awaits. Two well-proportioned guest bedrooms are immediately to the right and are separated from the master suite by the main bathroom. The master suite is a great size as you would expect, featuring an ensuite bathroom, walk in robe – imagine waking up to the lush vistas through each window every morning, serenity now!

Venturing outdoors, all of the infrastructure is in place, an oversized two bay shed/ garage, extra open carport, Bore, approximately 25,000 litres of rainwater tanks, horse shelter, full fencing (suitable for horses and livestock), even a small citrus orchard.

The current owners have installed a large number of trails that crisscross the property, (as do two small seasonal creeks) providing a great way to enjoy the bush, perfect for riding horses and with this area being world renowned for its bird life, there is an opportunity to use the property for bird watching tours.

Closer to the home there are two rather large cleared areas that would suit growing vegetables or another small crop....maybe clear a little more and create another income or become self sufficient...

This is a rare opportunity to secure a hugely private property with so many applications, secluded paradise hidden in plain sight.
