Stunning 24,000m2 (6 acres) home site about 1.5km from IGA Supermarket on the edge of Port Douglas with about 200 metres of seasonal creek lined with large mature native trees.

Ready to build, no covenants or time frame to build, no body corporate, close to shops and school yet far away enough to allow seclusion and privacy. Yes it has bitumen all weather road access all the way to the concrete driveway. Small enough to care for easily yet large enough to enable privacy and small rural pursuits.

Cooler nights and days are normal as the home site is level and 21 metres above sea level.
