Only Seconds from the Sand Between your Toes...

It all starts with location, and the beachside location is king when it comes to Coral Drive...and this property sits atop of the throne in its price range...

Not only is Coral Drive a non-through road but there is direct access to the white sands of Four Mile Beach via a bush lined walkway, you are so close you can almost taste the salt air.

Packed with features this extremely spacious and meticulously constructed property is one of three in a small complex. Consisting of an open plan living-dining and kitchen area there are also 3 ample bedrooms, all complete with built in robes. The two bathrooms, one of which is a private en-suite to the master adding that extra bit of luxury. An internal laundry and lengthy single carport complete the deal and given the size it really feels more like a house than a part of a triplex.

A large covered veranda awaits you at the entrance and is accessible from 3 different direct double doors from both the living room and master bedroom, each of these doors are fully screened thus when opened providing plenty of cross ventilation....perfect for the tropics.
