Connecting the two pavilions is a covered alfresco and entertaining area where you will spend a lot of time relaxing. The home is orientated to capture views of the lake directly in front and to the rear is a private and lush tropical garden surrounding manicured lawn.

This home is extremely liveable. The south-easterly coastal breezes flow directly across the lake on your doorstep and are welcomed in and harnessed to create a perfect natural cooling and flow throughout this home. In the event of those occasional balmy tropical nights the home can easily be closed where you can then enjoy full air-conditioned comfort throughout.

Many uses exist whether it be a home, perhaps a northern winter retreat to lock and leave, even a holiday investment where you can mix enjoyment of use with great income... the choices are yours but if you are searching for a great value property this needs to be considered and inspected.
