Colossus On Coral Sea Drive

Along a sequestered driveway you will find this magnificent residence of family sized proportions, delivering the true essence of a tropical sanctuary. This unique, beautifully constructed, large four bedroom home sits upon a premium land parcel of rolling green lawns and gardens fringed by an established tree lined boundary.

From the bedrooms to lounge and kitchen areas, you can overlook the resort styled swimming pool, timber decked gazebo and through to the luscious expanse that one lucky buyer will soon call their back yard. Any hard work is removed from the equation by way of low maintenance gardens to the brilliantly designed open plan home that captures the breeze from every direction. Brandishing louvred windows on all sides maximising air-flow and bi-fold doors that give way to sprawling patio that would make any home entertainer proud.

Furthering the appeal is the impressive high clearance secure shed and workshop fit for the discerning hobbyist providing storage options for a camp trailer, boat, and all your motorised toys. Combine this with plenty of usable open areas to enjoy any pastime you see fit.
