Believe in Miracles?

Well this is certainly a miraculous one-off opportunity to buy an incredible and unique Oak Beach retreat!

More than simply a house and land offering... this property is bursting with amazing options for you.

Not one but three (3) independent standalone villas and a convertible shed exist on a sprawling 7913m² parcel of land. Bordered by a seasonal creek and greenery this truly is an incredibly private oasis that is hidden away from the street by its lush tropical gardens.

The gardens give way to the first of the three (3) dwellings. The largest standalone home-like villa is fully self-contained boasting two (2) bedrooms, a full sized kitchen and living space. Tiled and air-conditioned throughout with contemporary styling, this villa is in excellent condition

Moving toward the rear of the property past majestic golden cane palms you will find two (2) more standalone cottages. Each of the dwellings is of a studio style, an open plan yet spacious one bedroom, one bathroom, with kitchenette layout. Again both are tiled, air-conditioned, tastefully decorated and furnished presenting in perfect condition.

Separating the two (2) rear cottages is an outstanding centrepiece... the resort style pool and inviting BBQ area. Complete with a massive waterfall, rainforest boulders and an alfresco dining pavilion this really is the centre of relaxation.

Further options await for additional living, storage and also potential income as you discover the large 90m² shed. Not just a shed as it is complemented with a fantastic bathroom, shower and toilet.

I mentioned options... really it comes down to you as the purchaser as to how you
