At the back of the allotment there lies a large shed that lends itself to a man cave, gym, or cottage industry – plenty of options at #25!

Wonga Beach is a 25 minute drive from Port Douglas and 15 from the sugar township of Mossman. Not only that the world heritage Daintree rainforest is only a short drive north.

The suburb features a primary school and if you are into your fishing there are prawns to be had directly off the beach along with plenty of fish...wet a line and enjoy a beer only a minute from your front door.

This recently painted home will be sure to impress any buyer looking for a bit of peace and quiet, and a home to die for, 25 Oasis Drive is just the ticket.
