7 Shearwater St, Port Douglas

Dive Straight into Shearwater

This family sized home will impress all who visit in regards to its price, presentation and features.

The open flow of the kitchen, dining and living area out to the poolside alfresco entertaining area is excellent. The timber deck surrounding the pool is the perfect place to enjoy a refreshing beverage or two.

Offering four bedrooms. The master with its ensuite and the main bathroom designed to cater for the peak time rush with a separate toilet room opposite the shower and bath area.

Tiled throughout with plenty of windows, air-conditioning and ceiling fans ensures coolness and sensational airflow right through the property... this home is both very liveable and again very affordable.

Being situated on a large corner, fully fenced, parcel of land has the added advantage of enjoying a large side access available if you wanted to park a caravan or boat off the street - perfect.

Outside the garden is easily looked after, low maintenance plants and an inviting swimming pool waiting... this is a really easy care home that you can enjoy and one that will not consume all your weekends with yard maintenance.
