owner... a nice little income earner.

Each home features three good-sized bedrooms with Daiken split system air-conditioning, built-in wardrobes and ample storage. Both bathrooms and laundry's are well-sized.

The wrap-around verandas offers serenity looking onto a quiet street amongst tropical gardens, nestled under the shade of beautiful, well-established gum trees. It is just a short stroll (300m) to Four Mile Beach, Sea Temple Golf Course, local restaurants, bars & shops.

Rare opportunity that the property is not strata-titled, meaning no body corporate fees and cheaper home insurance. Both currently have tenancy leases in place, providing future home and income options for the purchaser. This location is in a well-established suburb of Port Douglas. Port's NEW boom area is more and more older-style homes are being modernised for today's living.

This property presents a wealth of opportunities for the savvy buyer!!
