Paradise Found - 18 Ferrero Rd, Port Douglas

A remarkable home awaits... one created with the charm of yesterday yet constructed with the finest quality and trades of today.

No.18 Ferrero is a 10.08 ha (24.9 acre) property located right at the entrance to Port Douglas. It is an outstanding property that boasts a magnificent residence encompassing 797 sq metres under roof. The property boundary is ideally within 200m of the Port Douglas IGA Supermarket.

As soon as you proceed through the automatic security gates on entry giving way to the majestic grounds and gardens you get a real feeling of arriving home.

The elevated timber verandahs that surround the home, grant entry indoors and offer a perfect shady retreat where you can enjoy refreshing hill and sea breezes all year round.

Once indoors you will marvel at the open flow of living and dining. A reception room greets you, which is the heart of the home designed for both entertainment and family interaction. Vaulted ceilings and classic timber flooring make the perfect marriage between old style and new.
