perfect to escape with a good book.

- The sensational guest retreat is accessed via an elevated, timber walkway flanked by tropical palms – this incredibly private space has a private garden outlook, outdoor patio with kitchenette and screams ‘relaxation’.

No.2 at 65 Murphy, enjoys exclusive use of 407m² of beautifully landscaped and blissfully quiet gardens. You wouldn't know you have neighbours as the design has been masterfully created to blend into the environs.

A double garage is incredibly rare, and ideally here there is security, loads of additional storage and a full laundry. The home boasts a massive 416m² area under roof, including a huge 240m² of living, the difference being made up of decks, verandahs and balconies.

Upstairs the living, kitchen and dining areas open up, offering cross-flow breezes, stunning views, and space for all the extended family and friends that will be sure to visit.

This is the perfect home for living in the tropics, it has space and catches both the coastal and hillside breezes. Whether you are looking for a Port Douglas holiday getaway or a more permanent home, no.2 at 65 Murphy is without peer - an inspection is a must.
