Upgrading, Downsizing Why Not Both

Not very often will you find a property like this, one that requires zero work, having been completely rebuilt and presenting as a new home.

A family sized kitchen and full-sized lounge room will impress all those with great taste and exacting standards.

When it comes time to find a home where you can just start living and truly relax, a home without the burden of weekend gardening and the stress of maintenance... then this is the one.

Fully secure with an electric gate, coded side access gate and crim safe entry screens you can rest easy. This home being also perfect for those looking to spend the idyllic winters in Port Douglas and simply lock and leaving between visits.

With its two large bedrooms and two-bathroom configuration it is perfect for family and friends that will visit, with a private balcony on entry and another pool-side there is plenty of space for everyone.

For the investor you will not find a more attractive property, with nothing to spend. To be sold as you see it on a walk-in walk-out basis this is ready to start earning income immediately. A massive solar array will also perfectly wipe out your running costs.
